

ARE YOU THE CASE WRITER OF AARHUS CASE COMPETITION 2018?

Aarhus Case Competition (ACC) is an annual case competition in which Nordic business students compete in solving real-life business cases. The mission of ACC is to prepare business students for a business career. We need three Case Writers for Aarhus Case Competition 2018 – one of the largest case competitions in the Nordics.

Your responsibilities

- Writing 3 different cases for a case company with assistance from top management consultants and the Case Company
- Create valuable relations within the Case Company and get a deeper understanding of the business structure
- Strengthening the ACC brand

We offer

- Professional and personal challenges
- Great career and networking opportunities
- Ambitious and skilled colleagues
- A highly acknowledged volunteer student job
- An experience normally reserved for professionals while still being a student
- A conspicuous boost for your CV

Your qualifications

- Are currently enrolled at a university level education
- Have a structured approach
- Are a team player and a skillful communicator

We expect you to

- Be ambitious and motivated to contribute with your knowledge
- Take responsibility
- Work both independently and in a team
- Take a positive view: no job is too big, and no job is too small
- See opportunities instead of problems
- Want to make a difference

Furthermore it is an advantage, but not a demand, if you have experience from any kind of case competitions

In addition to the unique working experience you will receive training from top tier management consultants and a wide and valuable network among some of the most influential businesses in the Nordics. The workload is approximately 10 hours a week from the beginning of September, but you will be able to structure your own time in collaboration with your colleagues.

If the position has caught your attention, please send your application along with your CV and grades to mail@AarhusCaseCompetition.com no later than August 14th, 2017. Interviews will be held in week 34.

If you have any questions feel free to contact the Head Coordinators of Aarhus Case Competition 2018: Carina Vedelsdal (28 93 77 37), Isabella Vestergaard (28 79 01 08), and Pelle Lindequist (60 85 60 70)
