

Are you Studenterlauget's new Project Coordinator of The Buddy Programme?

The Buddy Programme is an initiative by Studenterlauget at Aarhus BSS that seeks to give Newcomers (full degree international students) the best possible start to their new life in Aarhus. By offering them a Buddy (a current BSS-student), making social events and throwing a couple of parties during the fall semester we wish to help with their social integration.

Through this internationally reputable event, we seek to offer you an exciting and highly relevant student job that leaves plenty of opportunities for personal and professional development. As project manager of the Buddy Programme, you will get the chance to work with project coordination in securing a profound integration of international students at Aarhus BSS.

Your tasks will include:

- The overall responsibility for planning and executing the Buddy Programme
- Recruitment and leadership of all the 'Buddies' (volunteer Aarhus BSS students) • Responsibility of many different stakeholders
- Continuous improvement of the Buddy Programme

We offer you:

- A highly relevant, project-based student job
- Practical experience with project management
- An exceptional opportunity to expand your Danish and international network
- A chance to develop the international student environment at Aarhus BSS
