

MASTER INTRODUCTION WEEK 2024

ARE YOU STUDENTERLAUGETS NEW PROJECT MANAGER FOR MASTER CASE?

Studenterlauget is currently looking for two project managers for Master Case 2024, which is an important part of the Master Introduction Week. As project manager for Master Case 2024, you have the opportunity to gain valuable experience with project management and partner contact. You will have overall responsibility for planning, coordination and execution of Master Case 2024. Continuous dialogue and coordination with partners and development and optimization of the concept. We point out that previous work experience is in no way a requirement, but instead something we offer!

We offer:

- Overall responsibility for planning, coordination and execution of Master Case 2024
- Continuous dialogue and coordination with partners
- Development and optimization of the concept
- Experience with project management
- Expansion of professional network through partners and stakeholders
- A nice and social workplace with lots of sparring

We thus offer an extremely business-relevant student job, which will certainly give your CV a boost and help you on your way to a job after finishing your studies.

What do we expect?

- You are a student at Aarhus BSS.
- You can communicate effectively in English.
- You are structured, organized, and responsible.
- You want to be a part of the Master Coordination Team and help plan the Introduction Week during the summer

We expect that you are able to participate during the Master Introduction Day (June 15th), Master Days (August 22nd-23rd), and the Introduction Week (August 29th-August 30th). We expect that you can start the position at the beginning of April. The workload will differ from now until the end of summer with the highest workload in the weeks before and in the Introduction Week.

How do you apply?

If the position sounds like a fit for you, send your application and your resume to masterintro@studenterlauget.dk no later than the 15th of March 2024. The interviews will take place on the 19th of March 2024.
